The graphic is a vertical invitation for an Open Day event. At the top left is the logo of the Istituto di Istruzione Superiore Lazzaro Spallanzani. Below it are three logos for the schools: Vignola, Castelfranco, and Montombraro. To the right of these logos is a large, torn-edge paper graphic with the text "You're Invited!" in pink cursive, followed by "OPEN DAY 11 GENNAIO 2026" in bold purple letters. Below the school logos are three location pins with their respective addresses: Vignola (via per Sassuolo 2158), Castelfranco Emilia (via Solimei 23), and Montombraro (via Serre 200). Further down are contact details: an envelope icon, "per info l.desensi@istas.mo.it", and a globe icon, "www.istas.mo.it". The bottom section features a collage of illustrations related to agriculture and education: a group of students, a chef, a scientist, a drone, a tractor, a globe, a bottle of olive oil, and various fruits and vegetables.
